

Witnessing at Knox

At a recent Friendship Circle Meeting and in light of our 150th anniversary, Marg Bentley gave a devotion on the meaning of witness as it might apply to the past and future of Knox. She asked each of the ladies to write a very short anonymous piece to describe what they felt it meant to them. In short, these are great descriptions of the value of a church family, and what we can carry forward into our community as we head into our next 150 years. They have been typed in random order, and exactly as written.

- I think of the many wonderful ministers we have had over the years – the many anniversaries we have celebrated together and the great fellowship of the ladies associations.
- We have enjoyed making new friends and memories together.
- As ushers on Sunday we enjoy the warm friendly people. Reminds us why we joined.
- I came to Knox when I was 16 years of age, all the way from Norval, and immediately I felt welcome. Joining various groups has been the best!

- Witnessing at Knox has meant to me many years of sharing and making friendships and taking these out into my everyday life on behalf of Knox.
- I have had great joy and satisfaction with meeting and enjoying all the girl's friendships while we work together to serve the Lord.
- The friendship and care for others.

- Meeting good friends. Listening to God's word. Singing God's songs. Praising his name. Fun at the bazaar. Preparing roast beef dinners. Decorating. Luncheons at the bazaar.
- The wonderful fellowship I have experienced at Knox over the years.
- I remember the wonderful way they greeted me. They are such a wonderful group. Marnie the lady who brings me is just wonderful. I am so glad I am where I am.
- Remembering the friendship and fellowship of Knox Church. Washing dishes for the roast beef dinner last fall.

- The sense of family, friendship and belonging over the years.
- Met loving and welcoming people, truly a small town feeling!
- Friendships. Dinner at Mandarin. Food Preparation. The bazaar.
- My joy has been singing in the choir.

- How many new friends we have made over the years.
- What fun we have had getting ready for bazaars, especially the penny sale, and all the kind and generous donations from the Friendship Circle.
- Came to Knox in 1973. Was impressed with all the projects, dinners and many more different things. Quilting was one of my favourite times with friends. So was the choir.
