The Scottish Confession of Faith of 1560

We confess and acknowledge one only God, to whom only we must cleave, whom only we must serve, whom only we must worship, and in whom only we must put our trust. Who is eternal, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, invisible, one in substance, and yet distinct in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, by whom we confess and believe all things in heaven and in earth, as well visible as invisible, to have been created, to be retained in their being, and to be ruled and guided by His inscrutable Providence, to such end as his eternal wisdom, goodness, and justice has appointed, to the manifestation of His own glory. Amen

KIRKIN O' THE TARTAN

The blessing is upon all tartans. All people who are wearing a tartan are invited to rise in their places and stand through the prayer of the Blessing of the Tartans. The Tartan Marshall, Ron Gable will proceed to the front of the Sanctuary.

The Presentation of the Tartan:

Tartan Marshall Ron Gable

For all who have lived and died under the sign of the Tartan, and who have bequeathed to us a noble Scottish heritage, we give thanks to God Almighty and seek His blessing upon these Tartans and all who delight to wear them.

The Blessing of the Tartan:

Dr. James Cooper

Almighty God, you commanded the tribes of your ancient people of Israel, to pitch their tents beneath the standards and the ensigns of their fathers, and you have set over your Holy Church the sacred banner of the Cross of Christ. Let the benediction of your most gracious favour rest upon all Tartans here presented before you today.

Lord God of Host, may your gracious blessing descend upon us, and may we be protected in the shadow of your wings. Bless all the families that claim a Tartan as their own, keep them loyal to the noble standard which their Tartans represent and faithful in their love and service to Christ and His Church. Through the same Jesus Christ Our Lord unto whom with you and the Holy Spirit, be all power and majesty both now and forevermore. AMEN
