The November Women's Breakfast at Mountainview Residence has been cancelled due to the H1N1 Virus. If the situation improves, a breakfast may be scheduled in the early part of the New Year.

The Knox Youth Group wishes to extend HUGE THANKS to our friends at Knox for your support of our mission trip next summer. We have raised more than $600 so far thru sales of our cookbook - a truly phenomenal sum over such a short time. We have 2 books left, which will be available this Sunday after the service. We have other fundraising projects on the drawing board, and will keep you posted. Thanks so much, Knox PC Georgetown!
Kirk Session has decided to increase the number of Elders of the church. The congregation is invited to put forward names for this calling. Nominations will close today at 1 pm and must be signed by two members of the church and delivered to the Minister or Clerk of Session in a sealed envelope. Your participation is encouraged.

Holly Faire Bazaar will be held on November 7th, 10 am to 1 pm. There will be a tearoom serving tea/coffee/juice and muffins, scones, croissants. We would appreciate any donations of jams, jellies, baked squares or breads for the bake table. Please bring items (ready to sell on plates in groups of 6) to the church on Friday November 6th. We will sell home made pies this year instead of fancy cookies. They will be $9 each and can be pre-ordered (contact Helen Hope). If you wish to help on the day, please contact Sandee Stoll. Please submit monies from quilt ticket sales to Beth Donker.

Mark your calendars Nov. 22nd at 7:00 p.m, the Rev. Mark Curtis in Concert will be here. You won't want to miss it. Please note date change due to Santa Claus Parade.
